91: 2073.

Recd of a Private Letter from the Hague, Feb. 14.
N. S.

TIME, which Politicians say explains every Thing, so far from rendering us that good Office perplexes us more and more. The Prospect instead of growing brighter, grows every Day more obscure; and those who a Week ago were pretty confident that they had a tolerable Idea of the new System, are now intelligent enough to discern their own Ignorance, and have so much Honesty as to confess themselves at a Loss.

Our last Letters from Petersburg, which are dated Jan. 23. make it evident, that notwithstanding all that has been given out, the new Government is far from being under the Influence of France. The Empress applies herself to Business with wonderful Assiduity, and discovers such a Capacity for the Management of Affairs, as surprises all who have the Honour to be near her. Her Behaviour has so much of Sweetness temper'd with Majesty, that all are desirous of approaching her, and yet there are none who seem to possess her in short, at present, there is in this Court neither Factions nor Favourites. On the 21st there issued a Proclamation for calling in the Money coin'd since the Accession of the late Emperor John, which is within a Year to be brought to the Mint to be new coin'd, and after that Time is elaps'd it is to be no longer current.

M. Lantzkowski is to continue at the Court of Vienna, with the Title of Envoy Extraordinary, and has actually had new Instructions sent him. The Baron de Kierling has the Title of Minister Plenipotentiary at the Court of Dresden; Prince Nariskin is to reside as Minister Plenipotentiary at the Court of Great Britain; Prince Czernichof, at present Envoy Extraordinary at Copenhagen, is to go with the like Character to the Court of Berlin, where, it is said, he will expostulate very freely on the Conduct of that Court, towards the Queen of Hungary. The Chamberlain Puskin is declared Minister Plenipotentiary to the King of Spain. It is much doubted whether any Peace will be made with Sweden; that Court expects such Concessions after a Defeat, as scarce any Victory could have obtain'd. In the mean time, our Court will make such

Use of the Presence of the young Duke of Holstein, as may probably bring the Swedes to entertain cooler Thoughts.

Letters from Paris of the 9th instant inform us, that People begin to suspect there, that the present Ministry has more of the Spirit of Mazarine than of Richieu.

We have, say they, a continued Series of false News published on Purpose to amuse the People, and to fill their Minds with high Ideas of the Wisdom and Prudence of those at the Helm. In the mean time there are not a few, who are sensible that we keep Sweden in Dependence at an immense Expence, and with Difficulty enough notwithstanding. That our Intrigues in Russia are no longer successful, tho' extraordinary Civilities are paid to our Minister, on account of his Personal Merit; that Affairs in Germany go from bad to worse, and that many are of Opinion the new Emperor will be obliged to change his Plan, and instead of following our Instructions pursue the Interests of his Country. In Italy the King of Sardinia acts very independently, and has even said enough to shew that he will not easily be frightened from the Measures in which he is engaged. The Spanish Court is also in some Confusion, the King having a strong Inclination to give Peace to his People, and resign his Crown. In the mean time we pay extravagant Marks of Complaisance to the Turkish Ambassador, which are variously interpreted, but are in reality design'd to keep up a false Opinion the Turks have entertain'd concern- ing the Grandeur of our Monarch, in comparison with that of other Christian Princes. We continue to talk of a high Strain of the invincible Power of France by Land and by Sea, which makes but little Impression upon Strangers, who know that the Flower of our Forces have been lately beaten in Austria by new-raisd Troops and Militia, and that the Dey of Tunis insults the French Flag, without being in any Pain for the Consequences. Our Cavalry indeed is remounting, and our Troops are to be recruited and augmented in the Spring; which will be the more easily perform'd, since most of our Manufacturers want Employment.

Our Letters from Rarishon differ considerably, but some there are of the 7th of this Month which say, that the City of Strubingen is fallen into the Hands of the Austrians as well as the Town of Brunsau. Almost all Bavaria is laid under Contribution, and every Hour News was expected that the Prince of Saxe Hildburg hausen had penetrated into that Electorate on the Side of Tirol with 5000 Men, in which Case it is said he will command the Queen of Hungary's Troops in chief on that Side, and that Count Khevenhuller would put himself at the Head of the Army in Bohemia. On the other hand it is given out, that the Allies will suddenly make a grand Effort in order to terminate the War at once. According to this Scheme, the King of Prussia is to march with 72,000 Men into the Heart of Austria, which Army is to be compos'd of 28,000 French and Bavarians, 16,000 Prussians, 12,000 Saxons, and 16,000 Men in the Pay of the Electors Palatine and Cologne.

Perhaps this may not be so soon done as it is talk'd of, especially if there be any Truth in a Report just whisper'd about, that Prince Lobkowitz has given a great Blow to the Allies, and that they were retiring with all the Haste imaginable towards Prague. You may probably expect, that I should not close my Letter without giving you some News of what is doing here at the Hague, which however is not easy to do. Your News-writers indeed pretend to a thorough Acquaintance with the Secrets of the States General, but we enjoy no such Favour. Thus much is certain, that our Government goes on in taking the most effectual Methods to be in a Condition to defend itself and to support its Allies. We are far from shewing an abject Complaisance to France, or from being unattentive to the Affairs of Germany, and it was observ'd that when the Hungarian Minister notified the Success of his Mistress's Troops in Upper Austria, the News was receiv'd with unwonted Satisfaction. The Rumour of a Neutrality begins to die away, and some People are so hardy as to lay Wagers that by the 1st of May the Face of Affairs will be chang'd in Germany, and the Queen of Hungary reinstated in all her Dominions, Part of Bohemia and Silesia only excepted.

THE HISTORY of the HEAVENS; consider'd according to the Notions of the Poets and Philosophers. Compared with the Doctrines of MOSES.

In which is clearly demonstrated, that the Gods formerly ador'd by the Heathens were neither Genii nor Men, but Symbols and Hieroglyphical Characters of the particular Seasons, &c. over which those pretended Deities were supposed to preside.

Part II. The Origin of the Heaven of the Philosophers. In which all their General Systems of Nature are examin'd, and prov'd inconsistent and absurd.

Part III. Experimental Demonstrations, that Light, Fire, Air, Water, Sand, Gold, and all Metallis and other Uncompounded Bodies, are so many Elementary Natures, neither capable of Destruction nor of Generation; and, no more than the Organized Species and the whole World, can have had any other Physical Cause than the Will of GOD.

All which Symptoms, in their sharpest Paroxysms, these Drops, which are Curiously prepared from the most valuable Specifics in the Mineral, Vegetable, and Animal Kingdoms, and exalted to the highest Degree of Perfection possible, instantly quell, and at the same time annihilate their real Cause, directly bringing the Stomach into right Order, creating a good Appetite, rectifying the Digestion, occasioning laudable Chyle, and, of course, a good Blood, Plenty of calm, free, and cheerful Spirits, a regular Circulation of all the Fluids, and Strength of Nerves, so that both Cause and Effects of Melancholy and Vapours are thoroughly removed by them, almost on the Spot, as are many Thousands of both Sexes they have perfectly cured.

Whoever takes them for 3 Days only, will be sensible they are absolutely to be depended upon for an effectual and lasting Cure, and certain it is, that no Medicine upon Earth can equal them; be careful therefore to have the right Drops, which are to be had only at Mrs. Holt's, at the Cross-Key and Star in Cornhill, below the Royal Exchange, at 3 s. 6 d. a Bottle with printed Directions at large.
